EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Mrs. Wilson Will Accompany the President to New York
Tomorrow.

Mme. Calderon Joins the Bolivian Minister—Keith-Smith Wedding.
Mrs. Clark Goes to New Jersey.

Mrs. Wilson will accompany the President when he leaves Washington tomorrow for New York to address the members of the New York Press Club.
They will only be absent from the White House for a short time.

Mme. Calderon, wife of the Bolivian minister, returned Tuesday from New York, where she went to meet Mr. and Mrs. Zalles and their children, who arrived Friday from South America.

Mrs. Champ Clark will go to Lakewood, N. J., Saturday morning to visit the family of her son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, who are spending the summer at Lakewood.

Mrs. Lee S. Overman, Miss Overman and Miss Grace Overman, wife and daughters of Senator Overman of North Carolina, will leave Washington tomorrow for their home at Salisbury, where they will remain until the opening of Congress in December.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J.
Glenn Townsend was the scene of a beautiful wedding today at noon, when Miss Elizabeth Mary Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Kinkadee of Maple Manor, Frost, Ohio, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Keith of Washington and Quincy, Mass.

The Rev. William J. Ennis, president of Loyola College, Baltimore, Md., performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev.
Francis Hurney of this city, in the drawing room, which was elaborately decorated with white roses and palms.
The ceremony was performed in a bower of palms in the bay window before a white satin prie die, garlanded with white roses and flanked on either side with tall standards filled with white roses.

The charming bride, who was escorted by Mr. Thomas B. Townsend, wore a becoming gown of white hand-embroidered georgette crepe over white satin, trimmed with chantilly lace.
She wore a white georgette picture hat with a large white picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Her only ornament was a brooch of sapphires set in platinum, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Anne H. Houser was maid of honor, and her gown was of rose pink georgette crepe over pink taffeta.

Her pink georgette crepe hat was trimmed with roses and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Little Miss Laura Christine Paul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Paul of Yarrow, College Park, Md., was the flower girl, and she wore a dainty white mull and lace dress with pink ribbons.

Mr. George Paul Keith of Hudson, Mass., served as best man for his brother.

A reception and breakfast followed.
The dining room was effectively decorated with quantities of pink roses and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith left this afternoon for an extended motor trip through the New England states. Mrs. Keith traveling in a modish suit of white whipcord with a georgette crepe blouse and a small panama hat trimmed with white ribbon and wings.

They will be at home in this city after December 1 at 2119 20th street northwest. Mr. Keith is a member of the Harvard, Cosmos, Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs of this city and the Quincy Yacht Club of Quincy, Mass.

Mrs. Joseph P. Tumulty and her children will leave New York tomorrow for Ashbury Park, N. J., where she will occupy the cottage of Dr. Ashur A.
Burton for the summer.

Mr. Tumulty will join his family there whenever affairs at the White House permit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Bacon of Omaha announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Lucile, and Mr.
Walter Scott Penfield of this city.

The wedding will take place in October.

Miss Bacon graduated from Brownell Hall in Omaha and later was a student at Chevy Chase Seminary.

She has frequently visited in Washington, when she has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Short Willis and Miss Olive Willis, who formerly lived on 16th street.

Miss Bacon was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Nelson Barker at Chevy Chase Seminary last April and while here was extensively entertained.

Mr. Penfield is a graduate of the University of Michigan, class of 1909, and of George Washington University, class of 1903. He is a member of the Chevy Chase and University clubs.

Mr. Charles Noble Gregory will close his apartment on Wyoming avenue June 30 and go to Ontario, N. Y., in the Catskills, where he has taken a cottage for the season. He will spend September at Northeast Harbor, on the Maine coast.

Our Lady's Chapel, Gonzaga College, was the scene of an attractive wedding this morning, when Miss Nora A. Murphy and Mr. Edward V. Farley were married by the Rev. Brooks, S. J. The bride wore a becoming gown of gray chiffon taffeta with hat to match. Miss Helen Murphy, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, was dressed in rose taffeta. Mr. August Radue was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Farley left for an extended northern trip. They will be home to their friends after August 1 at 138 V street northwest.

bert, Mr. Harry S. Wood and Mr. Pat Delaney. An informal reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, when the young couple were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Gilbert, the bride's mother, who wore a handsome gown of rose satin embroidered in crystals and rhinestones, with which she wore a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas. Mrs. Sale, the bridegroom's mother, who also assisted in receiving, wore a gown of black satin veiled in net, with a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Frances Espey, Miss Ruth Beavers, Miss Flora Linkins, Miss Addie Jones, Miss Adella Burdine and Mrs.
William H. Pierson were also in the receiving party.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs.
Sale left for their wedding trip, the latter wearing a sage green taffeta and crepe de chine gown trimmed with silver lace and cut steel, with hat to match.

They will be at home at 604 Longfellow street after July 15.

A quiet wedding took place today at noon at the parsonage of St. Matthew's Church, when Miss Jennie Bingham King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A.
King, became the bride of Mr. Edward Randolph Walton.

Rev. Father Cooper performed the ceremony in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimate friends.

The bride wore a smart traveling suit of blue taffeta with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of orchids.

There were no attendants and Mr.
Walton and his bride left immediately after for Cape May and other points on the Jersey coast.

They will be at home after July 15 at 1757 K street northwest.

Miss Genevieve C. Nesbitt and Mr.
William A. Yates were married Monday morning in Our Ladies' Chapel at Gonzaga College, Rev. Father William Brooks officiating.

The bride wore a blue taffeta coat suit with a large white picture hat and carried a bouquet of white roses.
Mr. A. B. Coppes was the bride's only attendant and Mr. A. B. Coppes acted as best man.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs.
Yates left for Atlantic City.

They will be at home at 22 East 25th street, Baltimore, Md., after July 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins have gone to the Hot Springs of Virginia for two weeks and they will then join their daughter, Mrs. Patterson, at Ramapo, N. Y.

The marriage of Miss Lillie B. Jennings of Culpeper, Va., and Mr. Daniel P. Kelly of Baltimore, Md., took place at the parsonage of the Douglas Methodist Episcopal Church, at 12 o'clock, Wednesday, June 28, the Rev. C. C. McLean, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will make their home in Washington.

Mrs. C. E. Nelson and daughter Ann left yesterday for northern Indiana to spend the summer.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brewton June 27 at their residence, 1505 33d street northwest, when their children met to celebrate the eighty-third birthday anniversary of Mr. Brewton. He was congratulated and kindly remembered by many relatives and friends. Mr. E. Donaldson, grandson of the couple, closed the evening by taking them for an automobile ride through the city and suburbs.

Dr. and Mrs. Cary T. Grayson, who recently returned to Washington from the White Sulphur Springs, where they passed the month following their marriage in New York, have taken an apartment at the Hotel Lafayette, and will remain there until they decide upon a more permanent Washington residence.

Admiral and Mrs. William S. Benson will have as a guest Dr. John Gayle Aiken of New Orleans, who has come
